

HOME

A Supplement to AAA World Magazine

Decked Out

Look beyond the walls of your home for living space that breathes.

While money may be tight for most Americans nowadays, you can still add living space to your home without busting your budget. And one of the most affordable—and manageable—ways to do just that is with a deck addition, which ranks as the fourth-most popular nonreplacement project (tied with minor kitchen remodel) in Remodeling magazine's 2009-10 Cost vs. Value Report—the remodeling industry benchmark.